Which of the four licensing objectives does your representation relate to? (Tick as appropriate)	(✓)	Please detail the evidence supporting your representation, or the reason for your representation. Please use separate sheets if necessary.
Prevention of crime and disorder		fights happen regular at least once a week, we have also had a stabbing, and one resident nearby badly beaten up for asking a pub goer to be quiet.
Public safety		when the pub does close, we then have large groups walking by, some even urinating on gardens, and many leaving glasses by the garden fences, after smashed.
Prevention of public nuisance		The pub is in the middle of a residential area with the long garden running in the middle of a number of houses. The landlord advertises this pub as Essex biggest Rave, he plays extremely loud music commencing early afternoon to late at night, which prevents residents enjoying their garden and even watch TV in their homes with doors and windows open
Protection of children from harm

Getting to sleep is also very disruptive due to the loud music and noise, and if you work weekends, this is mentally very draining to work a full day on a few hours sleep.

Every week there are easily over 100 people in the pub and garden, shouting, screaming, swearing and fighting fuelled on my alcohol and, no doubt drugs. The landlord at no time considers his neighbours and does nothing to prevent anti-social behaviour. This is definitely not a pub, it has turned into a night club, with people travelling distances to visit.

Throughout the summer the landlord was constantly breaking covid rules, he had several warnings and choose not to follow any of them. This shows he has no care for his employees or local residents, its all about money. He put a large marquee up without planning permission, which is an eyesore for local residents, and when told to take it down, took it to the appeal stage.

Any rules that were put in place would not be followed as he does exactly what he like and doesn't care
