I believe the license for chequers in old Harlow should be approved.

It's our local and we have been coming for many years and still see the same regulars coming too. I have never encountered a problem with how the pub is being run and is no different to any other pub I have visited in other areas, so I don't see what the problem is for the license to be taken away.

Since the new owner has taken over it's been very welcoming, he chats with the customers and tries to cater entertainment for all age groups etc, so everyone enjoys their visits.
